

WE ARE HIRING

SITE ENGINEER

THE ROLE

As Site Engineer, you will be part of the site based team with a primary focus on site activities. The engineering department is committed to conveying design information to the site operatives providing setting out to the highest accuracy in a clear and professional manner. You will also be responsible for recording any As-Constructed information, providing quality assurance checks and adhering to any constructing design specifications

ABOUT YOU

You need to be driven and self-motivated with a good work ethic. You must be willing to learn and continue your development. Being a team player is essential to the role.

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Preferably will have at least HNC qualification but working knowledge and experience equally relevant
- Able to read and understand construction drawings.
- Capable of using Total Station Survey and GNSS equipment
- IT literate
- Good communication skills
- Pro-active problem solver
- Relevant engineering software i.e. Auto CAD
- Preferred relevant site experience in;
 - Drainage
 - Earth works
 - Roads
 - Structures

LOCATION

Suffolk, Cambridgeshire, Northamptonshire, Hertfordshire
Warwickshire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, Bedfordshire,
Essex, Kent, Surrey, Hampshire and South Yorkshire

HOW TO APPLY

Please send your CV and covering letter to careers@breheny.co.uk

About Breheny

Formed 19th March 1963, Breheny are a large family owned civil engineering company and have been included in the NCE Magazine's Top 100 Civil Engineering Companies list, 2017, 2018 and 2019.

We provide civil engineering services to almost two thirds of the country from our offices in Suffolk, Yorkshire, Cambridgeshire, Kent and Hampshire.

We work in the following sectors:

- Highways
- Bridges
- River & Marine
- Utilities & Energy
- Environmental

Our people are our biggest asset and as a family business we value our people and are committed to training, developing and rewarding them. Our average length of service sits at 11 years which is something we are very proud of given that we have over 315 employees.

We actively encourage career development of our staff through various mentoring and ICE Training Schemes.

You will get the platform at Breheny to make an impact and be successful. Join us to enhance your career.

